Stormy Sunday evening, the rain was pouring, perfect evening for a ghost hunt.

The CSGR group (California Society for Ghost Research) which I am a member also and The Ghost Rescuers that I am Co-Founder, responded to a distress call, from an owner of a private residence in Hacienda Height, it was an emergency call, the email read: “Please help me, today around 3:45 a.m. A ghost attacked me as I tried to go to sleep. The ghost stared at me even though he had no eyes, nose, mouth or ears. I am afraid that this entity will reappear soon and is terrifying to know that he is capable to hurting me or my family, Please Hurry this is Urgent”

I responded with in 24 hours, this is my account of what happen that evening, January 6, 2008 in Hacienda Height, and the encounter with a restless and angry ghost.

The team group of the CSGR and my partner Susan Olson and I were in position and ready to communicate with the ghost.

I found the male ghost floating in the hallway between two bedrooms, one of the bedrooms was the bedroom in question.

The male ghost I saw was an African American, no clothes on him but I only can see his upper body, he was around 5’ 6, 5’ 7 tall, average built.

This is the EVP from the team and the respond from the male ghost as follows:

*I don’t like remodeling”
Jody, Jody is my name!
He brought me here!
I have been awake!!
My name is Jody Dwane!*

Yes I am!

I am he one!

Jody, I am male!

I have been awake!- He is agitated.

He is here!

I do not want him here!

Ye, yes, I am!

1963!!

Yes!

I want peace!!

Accident, no!!- He is very agitated.

Is mine now!

Get out!-Loud voice.

Is mine now- He repeated.

In the following questions, the male ghost pauses.

No, no!

Jody!

I am 38 years old!

What you want from me!

I have been awake!

Peace!

Jody! - He repeated.

Eyes that not see!-With much firm voice.

End of EVP questioner.

The male ghost, name Jody Dwane (I think his name was Dwane and Jody was his nickname), He died in a accident in 1963, because of the remodeling made at the house the spirit was awake, the spirit was so upset that he want to be heard and nobody listens. He shook the owner of the house very hard, the male ghost hand slip and punch the chin of the owner of the house, and, he also saw the male spirit on the ceiling of his bedroom floating in mid air, very dramatic event for this man to see.

A spirit that is trap in this dimension can be sleep for a long time until something wake him or her up, like for example remodeling a house, change of furniture, etc...

Conclusion

The house in Hacienda Height was haunted.

By Request of the owner I send the spirit to the light of God, now Jody Dwane is at peace with God and the owner of the house is at peace again.
